

Brandy Enger Joins Vizance as Director of Personal Lines

Hartland, WI (11/12/19) – Vizance announced today that Brandy Enger has joined the company as Director of Personal Lines, effective November 11, 2019.

Since 1999, Enger has been employed with R&R Insurance Services, Inc., holding multiple leadership roles in their Personal Lines Division including Client Service Director and Private Client Executive. During her tenure, Brandy successfully executed multiple initiatives leading to increased revenue and improved profitability, while maintaining an intense focus on relationship building and growth. Brandy holds a Bachelor of Business Administration degree from the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater, and currently sits on WCTC's Business Management Advisory Board.

"I am excited to join a firm whose vision and values are so closely aligned with my own," said Enger. "Always looking forward, Vizance has positioned itself well for both short-term and long-term growth, while not losing sight of its vision to put its Associates first, and its clients permanently top of mind. I look forward to using my passion and experience to help expand that vision, while leading an immensely talented team of professionals in the personal insurance space."

Jeff Cardenas, President of Vizance, echoed Enger's thoughts: "We are absolutely elated to welcome Brandy to the team. Our growth in Personal Lines has necessitated the addition of this role, and Brandy brings the ideal mix of experience and leadership. We are confident that Brandy will provide the oversight necessary to lead the team during this period of accelerated growth, while also enhancing our service offerings."
