IS IT REALLY “WORK” IF YOUR ORGANIZATION HAS CONSISTENTLY RANKED AS A TOP WORKPLACE?

You can be the judge of that, but our associates consistently use words and phrases like Fun, Great Culture, and Feeling Appreciated to describe Vizance.

We are always interested in meeting individuals who are passionate about what they do, and we are currently seeking highly motivated B2B Sales Advisors. Whether you are an experienced insurance professional or are looking for the next step in a new career, this may be the role for you.

At Vizance, Sales Advisors focus on acquiring and retaining clients. By utilizing a unique structured sales process which differentiates us from other agencies, Sales Advisors build and maintain client relationships.

If you have the drive to be successful in sales and are looking for a promising career in a growing organization, then we want to hear from you.
