

How to Enroll in Medicare Parts A & B

You may sign up for Medicare Parts A & B three months in advance of your 65th birthday month. If you currently take Social Security distributions, you will automatically be enrolled in A & B with no action needed.

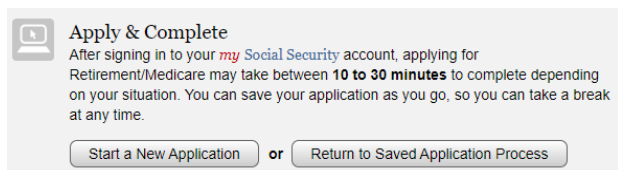

If you do not currently take Social Security distributions, please follow these steps:

- 1 Go to ssa.gov/medicare/sign-up.
On that page, locate Sign Up for Medicare and click on Apply online.

- 2 From there, you will be taken to a secure Social Security page that says Apply for Benefits. Agree to the Benefits Application Terms of Service.

- 3 Click on Start a New Application.

- 4 Click on the following options as they pop up:
 - Applying for myself
 - NO - I don't have an account (Select YES if you've previously set up an account)
 - Yes, live in US

Then, click Next to create an account.
